Planned Parenthood Votes Colorado Endorses Timiya Jackson for Denver School Board District 4

DENVER — Planned Parenthood Votes Colorado has announced its endorsement of Timiya Jackson for Denver Public Schools Board of Education in District 4.

“I am deeply grateful to have the backing of Planned Parenthood, an organization that has long stood for the rights, dignity, and health of our communities,” said Timiya Jackson. “Their commitment to ensuring every young person has access to care, education, and opportunity aligns with my vision for our schools. As a board member, I will work to make sure our students are supported not just academically, but as whole people whose voices and futures matter.”

Planned Parenthood's endorsement reflects their support for candidates who prioritize safe, inclusive, and equitable schools where every student has the chance to succeed. In announcing their support, they highlighted Jackson's track record of community leadership and her commitment to student well-being, transparency, and accountability in Denver Public Schools.

Planned Parenthood Votes Colorado advocates for policies that protect reproductive rights, advance health equity, and empower families to make decisions about their futures. Their endorsement underscores the growing coalition behind Jackson's campaign to bring strong leadership and authentic community representation to the Denver School Board.
